

I do not want to be called at home. I don't want to be conjoled or have to give my opinions when I'd like to relax. It is an invasion of privacy. That is why we have advertising, or surveys could be taken in malls. Pay me for my opinions if you want them that badly.